STATE 4-H CONTEST WINNERS ARE LISTED

Twenty-six outstanding Virginia 4-H Club members were named this week as winners of various home economics and agricultural contests, and two counties, Franklin and Nelson, were named top in the state for work in safety and in farm and home electric methods, respectively.

Dr. William E. Skelton, state 5-H Club Agent at V. P. I., said this is the second year Franklin has won the safety award, and the third year that Nelson has won the electric award. Plaques will be presented each county.

A Nelson County girl, Edith Collins, of Roselands, also copped the 1950 state award in the better methods electric contest. She will receive an all-expense-paid trip to the National Club Congress in Chicago, which begins November 26.

Loudoun County 4-H'ers won a sizeable share of this year's honors. Winners of trips to Chicago are: Frances Ritchie, style dress revue, and the Loudoun poultry judging team, composed of Charles Poland, Robert Ellis, and Phil Marshall. Charles Poland also won first in the state poultry achievement contest. Winners from Loudoun who receive gold watches are: Edgar Tolliver, meat animal contest; Ann Legard and Sam Legard, girls' and boys' leadership, respectively; and Betty Dunn and Regina Buck, dairy foods demonstration team.

Four Henry County 4-H'ers won state awards. They are: Hubert Pratt, field crops, a trip to Congress; Edith Frith, dairy achievement, a gold watch; and Eleanor Shropshire and Aubrey Bradshaw, girls' and boys' achievement, minature stations.

Appomattox and Halifax Counties each had three state winners. In Appomattox, they are: Jay Stewart, tractor maintenance, and Mildred Mann, laundry, both to go to Club Congress, and Lynwood Pelot, home grounds beautification, who wins a gold watch.

Trip winners in Halifax are: Jasper Jennings, field crops; and Patsy Norwood, home improvement. Jo Anne Armistead receives a gold watch as winner of the frozen foods contest.

Twin sisters in Patrick County, Mae and Ina Reynolds, receive trips to Congress as winners of the garden and market garden contests.

Other winners of trips to Congress are: Rudolph Shiflett, sheep shearing, and Mary Lee Wampler, both from Augusta; Daniel Brubaker, field crops, Franklin; Pearl Lindsay, food preparation, Bath; Darrel R. Large, safety, Dickenson; Ruth Fenne, clothing achievement, Henrico; and Mildred Crawford, girls' record, Albemarle.

Another Henrico County girl, Betty Huzek, receives a gold watch as winner of the dairy foods demonstration contest (individual).

The soil and water conservation contest winner, Joe Longmyer, of Nottoway, also receives a gold watch.

Also to attend the Club Congress are members of the livestock judging team are boys from Wythe County. They are Clay Lawrence, Buster Wilson and Luther Havens.

Dr. Skelton says records of the winners have been forwarded to Chicago, where they will be judged for sectional and national honors.

Winners of the Southwest Virginia potato and the rural arts and recreation contests will be announced later.

Evergreen W M U Meeting

The W. M. U. of the Evergreen Baptist Church had its regular meeting Wednesday, Oct. 18 at the church. There were 15 members present. A committee was named to select officers for the year. The stewardship program was presented by Mrs. J. C. Staples. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. H. B. Cralle.

Hallowe'en Festival Here Oct. 31

The local Parent - Teacher Association will sponsor a gala Hallowe'en Festival at Appomattox High School on Tuesday night, October 31.

A full program, featuring entertainment, prizes, food and refreshments has been planned. Proceeds are for a planned dental clinic.

Two Pastors Will Move Next Week

Appomattox will lose two of its ministers next week. The Rev. J. Marshall Walker concludes his pastorate at the Liberty Baptist Church this Sunday, having accepted a call to become pastor of the Bragg town Baptist Church in Durham, N. C. The Rev. Walker and family plan to move next week.

A fellowship hour, with the Walkers as honorees, will be held at Liberty Church after the evening worship service this Sunday.

The Rev. D. M. Spence, pastor of the Appomattox Circuit of Methodist Churches, having completed a pastorate of four years here, was transferred by the recent Virginia Conference to a Circuit near Martinsville. The Rev. L. F. Callahan will succed Mr. Spence here.

Their many friends here wish all success and happiness to these two departing ministers and their families in their new pastorates.

The Rev. Carl Maxwell was returned to Memorial Church by the Conference.

C. D. Hungate

Charles David Hungate died Saturday night at the home of his stepdaughter, Mrs. Mae Reynolds, of Evergreen. He was born July 27, 1884, in Floyd County, the son of William and Margaret Ann Hungate. He is survived by his wife, Lillie Ester Hungate; one son, Vernon Hungate, of Manassas; one daughter, Mrs. William L. Coates, Lynchburg; and one sister, Mrs. Cora Williams, of Floyd. Funeral services were held at 2:30 P. M. Monday at Floyd, with interment in the Hungate family cemetery there.

Kick Off

APPOMATTOX HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

Barbara Ann Johnson, Reporter

Here we go again with a little more news of the happenings at Appomattox High. As most of us know Tuesday was United Nations Day and the 4-H Clubs brought a very appropriate program carrying out this theme. Mr. Kerr was presented with a United Nations flag at this time. The program was enjoyed by all.

The Tri-Hi clubs from Roanoke came Wednesday and inducted the members of the Appomattox organization. The service was very reverent and pretty. We wish to thank the Roanoke club for coming.

We also hear the Tri-Li-Y girls have drawn up their constitution. We hope each and every one of them will uphold and abide faithfully by it.

The A. H. S. football team suffered its second defeat by losing to Altavista last Friday, 19 to 0. Our team worked hard but it seemed they couldn't get through the hard-hitting Altavista line. We are sorry Ray and Henry were injured, but we hope they will get along fine. Our Junior Varsity will play Lovington High there Friday at 3:00 P. M., so there will be no game here this week.

We get our reports today, so if any of you see long, sad faces you will know the trouble and maybe some of you with them long, sad faces will realize your trouble and settle down to work a bit more.

Don't forget the Hallowe'en Festival A. H. S. in the cafeteria, October 31. The funds taken in at this time will go to the Dental Clinic. Let's all come out and have a "ghostly" good time!

The individual pictures for the annual were taken last week. Today our club pictures will be taken, so everyone look and smile pretty for the photographer!

The Spanish classes will sponsor a Canteen Party Friday night. I hear the entertainment is going to be "muy bueno" (very good). Let's have a fine crowd.

The Spanish Club officers for the year were elected as follows:

President, Ellen Paulette.
Vice-pres., Nellie Perdieu.
Sec., treas., Ines Hanenkrat.
Reporter, Barbara Johnson.

I guess that's about all, so be good 'til next week and I'll see you at "the Kick-off!"

Up For Re-election Nov. 7

Congressman W. M. Abbitt

November 7 Election Day In Virginia

Tuesday, November 7, is general election day in Virginia, and voters of Appomattox County are urged to go to the polls and cast their ballots. Polls will be open from 6:30 A. M. to 6:00 P. M.

Congressman Watkins M. Abbitt is unopposed for election to another two year term in Congress. However the fact that he is without opposition should not keep voters of his home county from going out and giving him a rousing vote of confidence.

Voters will also be given two ballots lasting proposed amendments to the state constitution.

Went on Tour To Nursery

The following Garden Club members went on a horticultural tour, held at the Wonderland Nurseries, Ellerson, Va., on Monday of this week, where they viewed 30 acres of chrysanthemums:

Mrs. F. F. Carr, Mrs. S. S. Shouse and mother, Mrs. Bigony; Mrs. Ivey Holland and daughter, Grey; Mrs. C. T. Moses, Jr., Mrs. J. C. Caldwell, Mrs. H. E. LaBelle, Mrs. H. A. Gurney, Mrs. C. D. Staples, Mrs. J. E. Sears, Mrs. C. S. Jenkins, and Mrs. A. R. Harwood, Sr. They were joined by Mrs. Eames A. Powers, of Petersburg.

Dial Phones Being Installed In Appomattox

Dial telephones are being installed in Appomattox and it is planned to have the entire local system converted by midnight, October 31st. Much of the change-over has already been completed.

In a special notice in today's issue of this paper, the town calls attention to the new procedure for sounding the fire alarm.

Until midnight Tuesday, the present method of calling the operator will be used.

After midnight Tuesday, the fire alarm will be sounded automatically by dialing the number: 2002. The person sending in the alarm will hold the line and the first fireman reaching the engine house will answer the phone and find the location of the fire.

Mayor G. B. Buchanan warns the public to take care not to dial 2002 by mistake and thus turn in a false fire alarm.

For the benefit of those not having a telephone, a fire alarm box has been set up at the corner near Dr. D. A. Christian's residence.

A H S Defeated By Altavista Last Friday

Appomattox was beaten by Altavista High School 19 to 0 at Altavista Friday night in a Group 2 league game. Appomattox couldn't get the ball against the heavy line of Altavista and poor pass defense made Altavista's first two touchdowns possible. Appomattox's backfield is regarded and due to a lack of reserves in the backfield the team has been short on scoring punch in the last three games. Ed Cawthorne has played the last three games with badly sprained and infected ankles, and it has slowed him down considerably; Henry Doss has some sore ribs and Ray Wingfield was shaken up in the Altavista game. Kendall Hunter has a broken finger. So with the main part of the backfield ailing the boys will welcome a break in the schedule when they play Lovington there at 3:00 P. M. Friday. The second team and Junior varsity will be the only ones in uniform for this game. It is hoped that the rest of the squad will be ready for the Schoolfield game there November 3 at 8:00 P. M.

Orville Beard, of Altavista proved to be a one-man team as he passed for two touchdowns and ran for one over the Appomattox second team in the last quarter last Friday night. He was the outstanding player of the game.

Henry Doss stood out for Appomattox on defense and also played well on defense before being hurt in the final quarter. Kendall Hunter, with his hand in a cast, played well defensively and got off some excellent punts.

Appomattox has played a rugged schedule so far, and lack of experienced reserves has been a handicap. The rest this week should help.

The next home game is November 10, against Amherst.

Mrs. Wm. Jones

Mrs. Nellie Harris Jones, age 81, widow of William Jones, died Thursday, October 19, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ernest W Harwood, in Pamplin.

Mrs. Jones lived the greater part of her life in Gloverville, New York, moving to Pamplin two years ago. Survivors, beside her daughter, are three sisters, Mrs. James S. Comrie, Mrs. Albert Tizzard, and Mrs. C. R. Terryberry, all of Los Angeles, California.

Funeral services were held at the home Saturday afternoon at two, conducted by the Rev. J. Parks Hackney, assisted by the Rev. William M. Black, the Rev. T. L. Simpson and the Rev. Samuel G. Harwood. The bearers were Alfred R. Harwood, Jr.; John Wilson Hix, William D. Hix, John Haden, W. T. Puckett and Eugene Sears. Burial was in the Harwood family cemetery.
